The Romantic Young Man.

"Sophie Sparkle," the lively Saratoga correspondent, thus "takes off" the romantic young man of the spring.

Our romantic youth always comes into the dining room with a novel of huge dimensions in his hand. He looks at nobody as he enters, but takes his seat and at once plunges deeply into the novel. He is so absorbed with his reading that he seems to begrudge a spare moment to give the necessary order for his meal. The order, when given, never fails to make the waiter grin, in that broad, suggestive manner peculiar to the African race. This morning the eccentric individual ordered one egg and a plate of cake for his breakfast, after a spasmodic effort to look up a moment from his novel. The waiter rushed off in despair to interview the head-waiter. The head-waiter shook his head in a positive manner, then both waiters grinned, showing their white teeth to the utmost advantage, and the young man's waiter returned to say that they did not have cake for breakfast. The young man looked up in a half-dazed sort of way, as if he had all the woe of some modern Juliet upon his brain, but gave no further order and plunged again into his novel. The waiter brought the egg and put it before the young man upon the table. Fully fifteen minutes elapsed before he glanced up from his book. Then he looked at the egg as though half astonished to see it there, ate it up in two mouthfuls, took up his book and rushed hastily out of the dining room, only to seat himself upon the piazza and to dive deeply into its pages again. Now, what is to be thought of a young man who comes to Saratoga, pays $5 a day for his board, and behaves in such an unheard-of manner? The only solution possible to this unfortunate youth is deeply in love!

To Get Rid of Rats

Rats are a pest in every city and town, and, indeed, everywhere in this country. It seems nearly impossible to get rid of them, and any method that promises to secure this most desirable end is worth trying. Somebody recommends covering stones, rafters, and every part of a cellar with ordinary whitewash, made yellow with copperas, putting coppers in every crevice or cranny where a rat may get, and scattering it in corners on the floor. He has tried it repeatedly, and the result has been a general retreat of both mice and rats, not one of which had at last returned. It is said that a coat of this yellow wash, given each spring to a cellar, will not only banish these vermin, but will prevent fever, dysentery or typhoid. Everything eatable should be carefully secured against the ravages of rats, which are so intelligent that they will soon abandon premises where they can get next to nothing to eat. The rat we are most troubled with is the brown rat, much larger, stronger, fiercer and more voracious than the black rat, which has almost entirely disappeared, having been driven off or exterminated by the more formidable species. The brown rat is frequently called the Norway rat, from the erroneous impression that it came from Norway, which country it did not reach until it had become abundant in Britain and America. It appeared first at Astrakhan in the beginning of the eighteenth century, and gradually spread over western Europe, whence we have derived it. It was once known as the Hanoverian rat, because the British Jacobites were pleased to believe that it came in with the House of Hanover.

Her Brothers Deserted Her.

A Maryland schoolmaster told a refractory girl that unless she wrote a composition he would punish her. She appeared with two big brothers. The pedagogue laid a revolver on the desk and called for the record. It took her about ten minutes to indite the following sentiment: "There are various kinds of big brothers. Some would stand up for a sister under any circumstances, but there are some big brothers, slab-sided mongrels, who are a cross between a Gibraltar jackass and a Maltese Jew, who would sit around like a rat around a hole, while a red-headed, cross-eyed slab of unrefined poverty waddles around with a borrowed pop, and makes their poor sister paw around for the materials for a composition."

WHEN the boy flayed on a train is not selling papers, fawdy hooks, and gum drops dug from the ruins of Pompeii, he occupies two seats in a car, jerks his heavy box against people's knees, whistles annoyingly, makes fun of passengers, soaks his hair at the water-tank, and acts altogether as if he owned the road in a rather dirty way.

THE meeting of "dissatisfied Republicans" in Long Creek township turns out, as we expected it would, to have been run principally by Democrats.
The chairman and secretary of the meeting were both Democrats, while the principal orator of the occasion was the well-known "Secesh Knotts," who informed his hearers that he had been disfranchised with the Republicans for twenty years, and had never voted the ticket.

SAYS Harper's Weekly: "The democratic party, by suppressing the colored vote, makes a 'solid South,' and we are asked to give the government into the hands of that 'solid South, because we do so will conciliate it, and not to do so is sectional hate. In this situation, which is that offered to us by the democratic party, we are glad to recall the sentiments of a village philosopher—'The American people are not a foot.'"

Who ever knew a Democratic paper to print a line that could possibly be tortured into a reflection upon anything that the South did? The operations of the bulldozers have never been denounced by the Democratic press, which is again showing its lickspittle subservency to the South by defending the fraudulent canons in those states that are depended upon for keeping their old hulk of a party in power. The sole mission of the Democratic party for a quarter of a century seems to have been to apologize for and defend the crimes of the South.

THE Democratic papers are much troubled because of the alleged intimadation of their lamb like voters in New York city by that terrible ogre Johnny Pavement. It is well enough to be in mind that a committee of the United States senate, a majority being Democrats, recently investigated the official conduct of Mr. Davenport, and common rumor has it that the committee failed to discover anything that could be used to the advantage of the Democratic party in this campaign. Common rumor is doubtless right in this instance as the majority of the committee has taken no steps to make the evidence public. On the contrary, the minority of the committee—made up of Republicans—will shortly give to the public the result of the investigation, which will be anything but comforting to the Democratic party.

When our martial band was out last week, we noticed that the bass drummer made more noise than anybody else, but he wasn't the leader. The bass drummer on South Water street, and the one that pounded away so lustily in the court house, on the day of the Republican county convention, would do well to bear this in mind.—Review.

That is the way the Review man has of getting even with Brower Bann, who pounded the editor so mercilessly in his speech at the Republican county convention that he is sore yet. The victim of that memorable "pounding" seems to bear it in mind, whether anybody else does or not.

In everything be true. Be true to your promise, your conscience, and above all, to him who never deserts in time of need.

HAMPTON AGAIN.

Wade Hampton's quasi denial of his reported Staunton speech is about to get him in more trouble, as we learn from a Washington dispatch. It seems, according to the dispatch, that there is a Democratic weekly paper published at Staunton, as well as a Republican paper. The publication day of this Democratic weekly is one or two days later than that of the Republican weekly, and now comes the Democratic weekly of the Staunton Vindicator with a version of Hampton's speech very similar to that published by the Republican Valley Virginian, the Democratic paper omitting none of those passages which have excited so much comment in the North, and which Hampton and the Democratic leaders for him have sought to disavow. Moreover, the Valley Virginian itself comes out and says that the senior editor of the paper himself made the report of Hampton's speech, and he offers to prove its correctness by affidavits from scores of prominent Democrats who heard it.

The same dispatch gives the Vindi-cator's published version of the much-disputed paragraph in reference to Lee and Jackson. According to this Democratic paper this is what Gen. Hampton said:

"Pause before you cast your vote. Think how Lee would have voted. Think what Jackson would have done before he would have cast a vote calculated to divide his beloved Virginia. I ask you to remember those who have died on your soil, and to remember the principles they died for are again on trial to-day. I say nothing of your differences. I know there are honest men, brave men, and true men on both sides. But I beg you to remember that whether you are Readjusters or Flanders you are still Virginians. [Great cheering.]

It is noticeable that the report of this famous speech, as published in the New York Herald by Gen. Hampton's authority, does not contain anything similar to the extract quoted above from the Staunton Vindicator. Now let the Democratic papers of the North turn their attention to the editor of their own organ at Staunton, and see if they cannot compel him to take back his report of the Hampton speech.
Judging from the readiness with which Democratic editors swallow any and everything demanded of them by the party bosses we confidently expect to see this high-toned Virginian take back his report, and vouch for the correctness of Gen. Hampton's own version.

Another Patriotic Reminiscence.

From the Canton Register.

The following verbatim copy of a poster which was taken from the walls in Bushnell at the time, which is one of a large number with which that section was flooded, contains the names of a few of the "leading men" of the Democratic party at that time and since, and also expresses the sentiment of the dis Union party of that date. Republicans and Democrats who fought through the war will do well to study the following, the original of which can be produced at any time:

DEMOCRATS

ONCE MORE TO THE BREACH!

AT

Bushnell, Friday, Nov. 4th, 1864!

HON. L. W. ROSS,
MAJ. S. P. CUMMINGS,
T. E. MORGAN,
JOE E. THOMPSON,

Will address the people on the occasion and disclose to them the who's truth of the matter.

WHITE MEN OF MEMORABLE!

Who prize the Constitution of our Fathers; who love the Union formed by their wisdom and compromise;

BEHAVE MEN WHO HATE THE RE-BELLION OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN AND ARE DETERMINED TO DESTROY IT.

Noble women who do not want their husbands and sons

DRAWN TO THE VALLEY OF DEATH
BY A REMORSELESS TYRANT.

Rally out to this meeting in your strength and numbers.

If the South has entered upon a deliberate conspiracy to falsify the census, as now seems apparent, the growth of "sectionalism" in the North will be fast and furious. This is a matter of national concern. Stuffing ballot-boxes is bad enough, but that is partially a local offense. To carry the principle into the census will be to convince the North that the South is not to be trusted in any manner; that its sole policy is to get power at any cost of principle. In fact, the effect of the suspectious about the census is already apparent. Men who have hesitated to believe that the South would ever seek to have its claims paid, or to be remunerated for its freed slaves, now declare that a section which will commit crimes like these would be guilty of anything, even to robbing the Treasury.—New York Tribune.

"No More of Copperhead Democracy."

Bellevue Republican.

Tuesday evening a friend showed us a letter he received from Lyman Trumbull, bearing date 1866. It said "the result of the election all over the State was glorious. We shall have no more of Copperhead Democracy."

With exceeding great alacrity—like that which all devoted and faithful servants manifest towards their masters —the Northern Democratic papers are rushing to the defense of the fraudulent Southern census. It has been over than.—Chicago Journal.

REPUBLICAN OR DEMOCRAT.

This the title of a political tract which the Messrs. Harper have honored with a place in their Half-Hour Series.
The author addresses himself specially to young men, of whom there are, he estimates, in the neighborhood of 2, 000,000 entitled to vote for president the first time this year. The first part of the treatise is devoted to a history of the two parties that now confront each other. The work is well done, combining in a remarkably small compass an accurate and sufficient statement of the origin, causes and results of the slavery struggle. The steady and yet constant encroachments of the slave-owners on free soil is properly advanced as the cause of the Rebellion; and the injustice as well as the audacity of their claims is shown. The period of the civil war is rapidly passed over, because, as the writer observes, "When from the arbitrament of the ballot-box appeal is taken to that of the musket, the study of political parties on their merits ceases." But an effort is made to show that the sympathies which then bound the Southern States together still bind them together; that they are in substantial accord on all questions of public policy; and that it is not fair to expect from them the same devotion to the National government that is felt by the Northern states which fought to defend and preserve it.

"So long," says the author, "as the states recently in rebellion remain united, presenting a solid front, so long are their late adversaries bound in patriotic prudence to retain an opposing and watchful organization. If the Southern States are not hoping to obtain some sectional advantage for themselves, which they think the rest of the country would not willingly grant, why do they all, without one single exception, still hold together? Why do they not break up, as they otherwise naturally would have done in the course of the fifteen years which have elapsed since the war, into new combinations on other issues? It has been denied by Southern statesmen and by the Southern press that they have so much as the wish to return to slavery, even if it were possible; and this is, it is none less evident that they are held together by some common hopes, or purposes, or sentiments peculiar to their section,— the more to be suspected the less openly they are avowed,—and the realization or triumph of which must be presumed to be in the same degree prejudicial to the rest of the country that it is advantageous to themselves. Should the party, of which these states, acting as a unit, constitute the principal strength, triumph at the coming presidential election, these hopes and purposes will then doubtless soon be made known. At present we can only infer them. Whatever the enlightened statesmen of the South may themselves believe possible to be accomplished by its advent to power, there can be no doubt that the people of the South hope for, and that their statesmen know that they hope for, and know that thence comes their political unity and strength, some or all of the following results: They hope for the recognition of their share in the war of secession, as in all respects on a level with the action of the Northern states in suppressing the rebellion; they still hope for the eventual assumption by the United States of their debt; for the reimbursement of their expenditure; the pensioning of their soldiers; compensation for their losses incurred in the war; compensation, perhaps, even for emancipated slaves. We may further infer that they want the relegation of the negro to a condition of political nullity.

Is this the Same Col. Forney.

To the Editor of the Philadelphia Press.

May I ask, right here, Mr. Editor, if the Col. Forney who now is asking votes for General Hancock is the same Col.
Forney who wrote the Press from Washington, May 30, 1868, and speaking of the ceremonies on Decoration Day, said:

"General Garfield, the orator of the day, was in fine health and spirits.
General Hancock, handsome, but hanggly, was not in the procession to the graves at all, evidently hating the affair because it was not intended to honor the rebels. Hancock is evidently beginning to discover that he cannot be the democratic candidate for president without turning his back on all those who stood by him!"

Is he the same Col. Forney who wrote the Press April 17, 1868, speaking of Gen. Hancock's conduct while in command of the Fifth Military District, and said: "The recent rebel administration of Gen. Hancock has made treason bold and defiant throughout the state (Texas) and that 'in consequence of his general order No. 40, over sixty murders were committed within six months after he took command'?"

A Meritorious Official.

Alton Telegraph.

In a recent official communication to the Secretary of the Treasury, Gen.
Green B. Raum, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, announced that during the past fiscal year $123,981,216 have been collected on account of internal revenue and paid into the Treasury, and that the total amount for the past four fiscal years was $467,080,555, while the total expenses of the bureau for the entire period were but $19,929, 000, or about four per cent. This is a splendid showing, and speaks most credibly for the able administration of Gen. Raum. He has shown himself the ablest officer ever at the head of the Revenue Department. When Gen.
Garfield selects his Cabinet he should make Gen. Raum either Secretary of the Interior or of the Treasury. His magnificent executive abilities demand that he be placed at the head of one of these departments.

TELEGRAPHIC

POLITICAL.

A Loving Time in McLean County.

The Campaign in the East.

ARRIVAL OF HORACE MAYNARD.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Aug. 20.—At Saybrook, McLean county, political matters are at red heat, and if the excitement continues to increase it is feared that unpleasant circumstances may follow. The excitement began ten days ago by the public announcement by Mr. Oliver C. Sabie, an old-time Democrat, that he had renounced his allegiance to the Democracy, and would support the Republican nominees. Yesterday, J. A. Myers, an old resident and life-long Democrat did the same thing in an open letter. Last night a political meeting was held at Saybrook, at which most astonishing revelations were made regarding Hon.
James S. Ewing, of Bloomington, democratic candidate for elector-at-large, and manager and general superintendent of the campaign of his cousin, Hon. A.
E. Stevenson. The affidavit of J. J.
Padgett, of Saybrook, was read. He had lived in McLean county 30 years, was a democrat until 1868, when he voted for Grant. He belonged to the Knights of the Golden Circle, who met in a school house near Diamond Grove and at Hay Stacks. The object of the order was to protect fleeing rebels in the North, and to resist the draft. In 1864 James S. Ewing made a speech to Padgett's club, urging resistance to the draft. Ewing had a supply of pistols with him, and offered two to Padgett.
Henry B. Raymond, an old citizen of McLean county, testified that he was a member of the grand jury in 1863 and 1864, at which time the fact was brought to the notice of the jury that Ewing was making disloyal speeches, and a list of witnesses was presented to testify to the fact, and also that Ewing was distributing pistols. A pledge was presented to the jury, purporting to come from Ewing, to the effect that if the matter was dropped he would never again make a political speech, whereupon the grand jury decided to take no further cognizance. The same charge has been made time and again against Ewing, but never before clenched by affidavits.

Boston, August 22.—The Cunard steamship Aleppo, which arrived at her dock in East Boston this morning, brought among her passengers Hon.
Horace Maynard, late United States Minister to Constantinople. The ex-minister expressed himself as delighted to once more find himself at home, having always had a weakness for his own country and her institutions, which has not diminished by a residence abroad since 1875. He will proceed to Washington at once, only stopping on his journey to visit his invalid wife, who preceded him to this country many months since, and has been prevented by constant illness from rejoining him abroad. Mr. Maynard expects to be immediately installed in office under his new appointment, as it is understood that Judge Key is ready wanted in the position he is to fill, and that he must enter upon his duties by September 1.
The ex-Minister speaks very highly of his successor at Constantinople, expressing the belief that the latter will give eminent satisfaction in the position. Of affairs in Turkey, political or general, Mr. Maynard naturally has little to say, his communications to the government covering all these matters being in the nature of private advices.
In the course of conversation he spoke strongly in favor of the mission work of the American Board, as carried on in Turkey, alluding in strong terms to its importance and value, its constant progressiveness and its peculiar excellent educational features. Mr. Maynard is already on his way to the Washington.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 22.—The body of the man murdered for stealing a bunch of grapes at Agnew station was found last night near Rochester, Pa., and has been identified as that of Robert Bryson, of Harrisburg, son of Robert Bryson, Sr., a wealthy retired iron manufacturer, and nephew of James and Robert McCormick, two of Pennsylvania's wealthiest men. He was also first cousin to J. Donald Cameron's first wife. He was highly educated, but subject to some severe nervous affection, which slightly clouded his intellect, from which it was thought he had recovered. He was last heard from several weeks ago, at which time he was at Hot Springs, Ark. It is believed he became demented, and either trapped from St. Louis or got off a train.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., August 22.—Morning papers here which arrived this morning the following particulars are gained of a riot which occurred yesterday at Col-feville, Miss., the county seat of Yallabusha county, sixteen miles north of Grenada, on the St. Louis, Chicago and New Orleans railroad. A special election is to be held next Tuesday, to fill a vacancy for sheriff, over which there was a contest at the last general election. The democrats and greenbackers have a ticket in the field. On Saturday both the parties held a ratification meeting at Coffeville, and each raised a pole. The democrats had a brass band from Grenada. After the pole raising they marched through the streets.
While passing a corner, a difficulty occurred between Spearman, who was in the democratic procession, and R. V.

Pearson, greenback candidate for sheriff, which resulted in Pearson shooting Spearman, killing him instantly. This was the signal for a general melee and a volley of shots was opened upon Pearson, who was shot three times, from the effects of which he died last night. Two white men were killed and Reddick, a friend of Pearson, was wounded. For a time a perfect pandemonium reigned.
The excitement ran so high that the Walthall Grays, a military company at Grenada, was telegraphed for, but afterwards the order was countermanded.
Last night Coffeville was quiet.

Boston, Aug. 21.—The Vermont campaign promises to be lively in the remaining fortnight before the election.
Chairman Barnum, of the National Democratic Committee, has telegraphed to turn the state upside down during the brief time remaining. Special efforts on both sides will be made in the back towns and local cities remote from railroad and journalistic influences. It is estimated that during the few days remaining not less than 1,000 political speeches will be made throughout the state. It is the idea of the managers on both sides to have one or more meetings in every city and town, irrespective of those which have been held.
The republicans have just finished a canvass of the state, and it is reported that it is contemplated to make public the announcement on Monday that the canvass assures a republican majority of about 27,000.

New York, August 20.—Dr. Tanner has had all his teeth drawn. Dr. Gunn says he will stay until his dentist provides a new set, then he will visit his father in Litchfield, Ohio, and return to the city and begin his lectures.

"You will remember the first complaint he uttered after the termination of the fast, was that his jaws were sore.
Well, the enormous eating he did, and constant use of his jaws after their long disuse, made his gums sore. While he was fasting the gums shrank from the teeth, and when he began to use his jaws the motion loosened the gums, and, at the same time loosened his teeth, hence the tooth-pulling and the new set of teeth."

The Doctor accepted one of the invitations he had to dine on Coney Island, and, after sitting down at Paul Bauer's and eating a luncheon of clam chowder, blue fish, and drinking a bottle of Bass ale, he began again on fish, tongue, bread, and potatoes, and drank another bottle of ale. His weight is up to 155 pounds. When he began the fast it was 157.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Memphis Advertiser sets up the ingenious theory that the Southern census—returns were stuffed by Radical emissaries for effect upon public opinion at the North. This is about as probable as that Republicans should elect Democrats to Congress for the sake of producing a reaction in their own party. The Supervisors in South Carolina, which is the State most suspected, were appointed by Senators Hampton and Butler, Democrats both, who will not be suspected of partiality for Northern Republicans.
It has been suggested of late that the census of the Southern States in 1870 may have been imperfect, as some of the enumerators then were ignorant negroes. But this does not cover the ground. The reported increase now is astounding not only as compared with the census of 1870, but with that of any previous period. South Carolina increased but 6 per cent from 1850 to 1860, the most prosperous period she ever had, yet the Charleston News and Courier reports an increase of 43 per cent for the last ten years. North Carolina in her most prosperous period—1850 to 1860—increased 14 per cent; yet the gain now is reported as 29 per cent. Virginia is said to have increased more in the last ten years than in the previous fifty years, and Kentucky more than in the previous thirty years. These franks, if they are frauds, will surely be exposed. They are to gross to deceive anybody. The Charleston paper admits that a recount may be desirable to satisfy everybody, and says:

We are quite willing that there should be a recount in South Carolina if it will gratify or satisfy the radical organs, and we would make no other condition than that there should be two enumerators for each district, one of them a Democrat and the other a Republican. We have entire confidence in the substantial accuracy of the census, though it shows an enormous increase, and we have no desire to claim credit for a larger population than the State has.

By all means let there be a recount, and let South Carolina be chosen as a test case. If the returns there are verified, well and good; if they are proved to be false, Kentucky, Virginia, Tennessee, and North Carolina should next be taken in hand.

LENN & SCRUGGS.

In our telegraph columns on August 18th, appeared a highly colored account of a fearful accident which occurred at Winchester, Va., on the previous day, while Coup's circus was parading the streets of that city. "Herr M. Drayton," was in a den of iniquity, and the animals becoming ferocious tore and lacerated the person of the keeper in a frightful manner, the telegram stating that he would surely die from the effects of his injuries. "Drayton" is a brother of Mrs. O. O. Pratt, of this city, whose husband travels for the grain firm of Brown & Boyd, of Indianapolis. The injured man's real name is Charles Boger. He was born and raised in Clinton, Ill., and used to travel with Forepaugh's circus. Mrs. Pratt has been considerably alarmed about her brother, and was greatly pleased this morning on receiving a telegram from Mr. Coup stating that her brother is recovering rapidly, and was expected to arrive to-day at Washington, D. C., from Winchester.

Otto E. CURTIS, the jeweler, had another serious runaway Sunday afternoon, between Macon and Moweaqua. Otto had a young lady, Miss Annie Bottembeld, of Macon, in the top buggy with him, and his handsome sorrel mare, "Fear Not," was pulling the rig. The mare took fright at a large white sign in the road, and though Otto exerted himself to the utmost to prevent the stampede, "Fear Not" out-winded him and ran a distance of two miles before stopping in a barnyard. Fortunately, Curtis and the young lady managed to get out of the buggy before the mare started to run, and escaped with but a few scratches. The running gear of the buggy was pulverized, but the bed and top were not damaged. "Fear Not" was subsequently caught, was hitched to a spring wagon, and the journey of the couple was continued without further mishap. In the evening Curtis borrowed a saddle and rode his mare home. About a year ago Curtis had a serious runaway on Water street, which laid him up for several days, but he was more lucky this time.

DECATUR will be represented by two horse companies—Rescue, No. 1, and Neptune, No. 3—at the annual state firemen's tournament which takes place at Mount Morris, Illinois, during the first week of September. The Hookies will not go as a company this year. The horse companies named will take with them the picked runners and couplers of the city, all of whom are in excellent trim, to make good time, and will probably bring home the state prize if there is no accident.

CAPT. ALLEN informs us that farmers and others who have been using the old county bridge which is now closed for repairs, will find a very good ford for horses and vehicles west of the Central railroad bridge below the city dam. The ford is accessible from South Main street, going across the slaughter houses on the west side. The road passes along the south bank of the Sangamon east to the county road, and those who use it will find it quite convenient.

THE ceremony of laying the corner stone for the new Lutheran church now in course of erection on West Wood street, is announced to take place on next Thursday afternoon at four o'clock. Friends of the congregation are invited to be present.

ONE of the Sisters at St. Mary's Hospital fell down stairs on Sunday, and cut an ugly gash on the back of her head, which required the immediate attention of one of the hospital surgeons.

THE J. Insko Williams great Bible Paintings will open to-night at the tabernacle. It is the best exhibition for the price ever in this city.

COL. W. D. WYATT and Miss Hummell of Leavenworth were the speakers at the tabernacle Saturday evening.

Death of Mrs. Little Greenman. Mrs. Lillie, wife of Corwin M. Greenman, died this (Monday) afternoon at one o'clock, at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Ellen Shipman, on West Main st., after a long and painful illness, with that relentless destroyer of human life, consumption. The deceased was married in May, 1879, and died at the age of about 30 years, in the bright morning of her life. In health she was of a bright and cheerful disposition, a dutiful and loving wife, and the comfort of her mother, on whom her death falls with crushing weight. The grief-stricken husband, mother and brother will have the heartfelt sympathy of our people in their great affliction. The funeral will take place from the family residence to-morrow. The hour has not yet been fixed upon.

Free Oil Paintings. Mr. J. N. Williams has on free exhibition a choice collection of oil paintings at the tabernacle. Open every day from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. A part of the collection is for sale at very low prices. The ladies are especially invited to call and see them.

Political. The Republicans of Milam township assembled in goodly numbers at the Milam Centre school-house, on Saturday afternoon, and organized a Garfield and Arthur Club, electing Wm. Coombs President. The club was ably addressed by W. C. Johns and E. P. Vail, and much enthusiasm was manifested.

Saturday night the same gentlemen spoke at Mt. Zion, there being a very large turnout of Republicans.

The citizens of Wheatland and vicinity will be addressed by Hon. J. G. Cannon and others, at Cornthwait's Grove, 3 miles east of Elwin, on Wednesday, Sept. 1st. The speaking will commence at 8 o'clock a. m. All are invited to be present and bring baskets well-filled with eatables.

AN OLD CITIZEN CALLED HOME.

Death of S. William Allen, an Old and Highly Respected Citizen of Macon County.

DEAD—At his late residence, one mile north of Harriestown, in this county, at 11 p. m. on Saturday, August 21, 1890, D. S. WILLIAM ALLEN, aged 58 years, 6 months and 30 days.

During last spring Mr. Allen was injured by a serious fall from a building on his farm, which crippled him about the hips for a number of months. He suffered from no well defined disease, but died from physical prostration, his internal organs failing to perform its functions.

The deceased was born in Georgetown, Scott county, Kentucky, February 8, 1822, and came to Macon county in 1855, purchasing a section of land in Harriestown township, from the late Walter Turner, and on this well-known farm, which is one of the best in the county, Mr. Allen has lived for a quarter of a century, leading the life of an industrious farmer, making a specialty of raising fine grade stock for the stock market. He leaves a wife, two brothers, Alfred W. Allen, who lives in Harriestown township, and W. Wright Allen, who resides in Georgetown, Ky., a sister, Mrs. Wm. J. Quilan, of this city, and four children, Rhodes Allen, Henry C. Allen, (Bacon Allen, Wright Allen and Mrs. Lou C. Gregory, and hosts of friends to mourn his demise. The aged mother of the deceased, Mrs. Catherine Shropshire, and his brother were at Harriestown, about two weeks ago, and left for their home in Kentucky a few days since.

By the death of Mr. Allen the county has lost one of its very best citizens. For over 20 years he was a consistent, active and useful member of the Methodist church at Harriestown, and was always prominent in every good work, to which he contributed liberally. Being of a modest and retiring disposition he never sought or accepted prominence in public life, preferring to remain on his farm and follow his chosen occupation in his own quiet and successful way. For many years he was a valued member of the Macon county agricultural board and at the time of his death was one of the nine directors of the board.

The funeral will take place from the Methodist Church at Harriestown this (Monday) afternoon. Rev. Hiram Buck will conduct the services.

All About a Baby.

Some months ago a young woman named Woody had Ezekiel C. Howell, (better known as "Yankee" Howell) arrested on a charge of battery. Miss Woody was Howell's housekeeper for a time. The examination was held before Justice Curtis, who discharged the prisoner. Since that revelation A. C. Woody the grandfather of the fatherless child and Mr. Howell who live close together east of Decatur a number of miles, have not been very friendly—not giving each other morning nods, nor calling upon each other as most farmers do when everything is lovely in the camp. The other day Woody and Howell collided with each other. Woody charged Howell with being the father of his daughter's child which was then about a week old; said it looked like him, etc., but "Yankee" said nay, nay, not so. Then ensued a lively jawing match, which, Howell says, ended in Woody threatening to kill him. Being alarmed Howell came to the city, swore out a state warrant, and had Woody arrested on a charge of threatening to commit murder. Justice Curtis let Woody go in peace under $100 bonds until Tuesday, August 21st, when the preliminary examination will take place.

We are sorry to say it, but it cannot be helped. Late in the season as it is we have on hand yet nearly one hundred dozens of misses' and children's full regular made seamless Hose, in Roman and Pin Stripe, and other handsome patterns. We also show about an equal quantity of the same class and quality of Ladies' Hose, and about 50 dozens Ladies' full regular made Balbriggan Hose. In addition to these we have left a very large assortment of cheap ladies' and children's Hosiery, in very excellent patterns and colors. Also about 10 dozens misses' and children's full regular made seamless Hose, in solid colors, comprising navy blue, seal brown and cardinal, fast colors beyond a doubt. Being greatly overstocked in summer Hosiery, and desirous of cutting it off as much as possible before our fall purchases come in, we offer extra inducements to parties in want of Hosiery of any kind.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Bob Harner is now a salesman at J. R. Race & Co.'s clothing establishment.

Mrs. Albert Leach has been quite ill for the past three weeks with typhoid fever. She was able to sit up in bed to-day.

H. G. Wright, representing the marble firm of Lewis & Whitehead, of Indianapolis, is in the city on business.

B. F. Ward and bride, couples, were among the guests at the St. Nicholas over Sunday. They left for their rural home this morning.

B. Stipe left this morning via Bloomington for Cincinnati and New York to select a new stock of fall and winter clothing.

Miss Annie Hyde, an accomplished and talented young lady of Terre Haute, Ind., is in the city on a visit to her particular friend, Miss Dollie Millikin.

Miss Mary Cummings, of Macon, who has been attending the teacher's institute, has gone home. She will teach this winter near Moweaqua.

Charles Berry of Oakley township has laid upon our table fine samples of fall apples. They are very large and perfect to the core. Twelve of them would fill a peck measure.

J. F. Payne, of this city, representing the milling machine manufacturing firm of Barnard, Lees & Co., of Moline, Ill., departed this noon on a two months' business trip through Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York.

M. Einstein will depart for Chicago to-night to purchase a complete stock of millinery goods and notions for that new establishment to be opened on East Main street within the next 10 days by Einstein & Bear.

J. J. B. DuBois, of Leadville, Colorado, arrived in the city late Saturday night, and put up at the St. Nicholas. The "major" is in fine health and spirits. He will remain here a day or two greeting his numerous friends before taking a rail ship for New York.

Jacksonville Journal, 22d inst.: Those of our readers who are acquainted with Mr. John H. Crocker, of Marion, and his two sons, John and George, both former students of Illinois College, and the latter proprietor of the College Rumber, will learn with interest that Mr. Crocker has taken his two sons into partnership with himself in the banking and elevator business.

Samuel Seaman and wife of Macon were the guests of L. M. Hill, on East North St. on Sunday. It has been 17 years since Mr. S. visited Decatur, and he was greatly surprised to behold the growth of our busy city during those years. He has been a faithful member of the Methodist church for 62 years, having joined this denomination at Zanesville, Ohio, when 18 years of age.

A Wall from Wheatland.

The democratic howlers of the hub of the county appear to have a special spite against the untiered of that rock-rooted stronghold of unadulterated democracy, Wheatland township. Scarcely a Saturday night passes but the "pick" of the talking timber of the city go there and have what they call "a genuine love-feast." Last Saturday night Eldridge, Jack and Housum held the boards on the Elwin platform and would have had a rip-roaring old time had it not been for Tom Beadles, a faithful greenbacker, who kept chipping in, much to the discomfort of Editor Jack, who had his hands full, cracking the nuts thrown at him. Tom doubtless had heard how Sammy had tried to make himself conspicuous on a recent memorable occasion when A. B. Bonn laced his jacket for him, and therefore he felt like worrying him just a little. And now comes an independent reader who wants to know what the democrats of Wheatland township have done to the mossback leaders of Decatur that they should be visited and talked to death every Saturday night by such "wheel-horses" of the combination party as Cousins, Walker, Eldridge, Jack and Housum. They cry out in great agony, and seriously want to know if there are not other democratic precincts in the county that need cultivation. The Wheatland dems are a long-suffering class of people, and it is said they are thinking strongly of organizing for self-protection against the punishment inflicted upon them every week by their professed friends.

Jail Meetings—A Statement.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:—Inasmuch as an erroneous report has in some way come before the people—unfair toward the prisoners at least—I beg leave to make a true statement.

On the 15th of April last, the officers of the W. C. T. U. were constituted a committee to arrange, if possible, for meetings at the jail on Sunday afternoons. Permission was readily granted by the sheriff as soon as asked, and every Sunday from that time till Aug. 8th, with one exception, several of the ladies held religious services with the prisoners, and were well received and politely treated by them in every instance. Without presuming to say that the men were made any better by the services—because I do not know this—I can say (for I was present every time) that all who came into the room were quiet during prayer, scripture reading, and the remarks we made to them, and most joined as well as they seemed able in the singing.

On Aug. 15th, the day of the reported disturbances, we held no meeting. The ladies first arriving on that day were informed that, for reasons given, it was judged not best to open the doors. Whatever disorder had occurred was in our absence and in no way connected with us. Respectfully submitted,

M. M. SARGENT, Sec. W. C. T. U.

[NOTE.—The account of the attempted jail breaking on the afternoon of Sunday, August 15th, which appeared in these columns, was written at the instance of the sheriff who furnished us the particulars of the incident. He did not lay any particular blame at the door of the Union, but simply stated that the ladies in future make their visits on Sunday forenoon.—Eos.]

DIED.

At Harriestown, Ill., on Sunday, August 22, 1890, James Stoekey, aged about 17 years.

The deceased is a son of Daniel Stoekey, Esq., and had been in feeble health for a number of months. He died of typhoid fever. The funeral will take place on Tuesday forenoon at 10 o'clock.

A Resolution.

At a meeting of the Young America Hook & Ladder Co., August 6th, the following resolution was passed:

Resolved, That the uniforms for this company be delivered to members, they to receipt for the value thereof; and no member shall be allowed to wear his uniform except by order or permission of the captain of the company, under penalty of forfeiture of the uniform.

Religious News.

There were no services at the U. B. church Sunday morning. Rev. A. C. Armstrong occupied the pulpit at 1:30 o'clock and preached to a fair congregation.

Rev. J. D. Kerr, of Denver, Colorado, brother of W. W. Kerr and Mrs. J. H. Lewis, of this city, occupied the pulpit at the First Presbyterian church at 10:30 a. m. Sunday. A very large congregation was present and listened attentively to a scholarly doctrinal discourse, interspersed with sensible views on the temperance question. Mrs. Gamble sang a beautiful solo entitled, "With Verdure Clad." Having returned home, after an absence of several weeks in Chicago, Rev. W. H. Batson preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

A Suggestion to Summer Tourists.

A change of climate is at all times more or less dangerous. There are elements in a new atmosphere which are injurious, especially when the system is exhausted by care and overwork, and which should be guarded against. After careful observation we have come to the conclusion that Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure is the best preventive for atmospheric evils and that it will restore health and vigor sooner than any remedy which has ever been discovered.
